Hello again to the Rochester US Courthouse

Thank you very much for the Pro Se litigation packet you sent me earlier this year, Very productive things came out of it already

Since I have not been present for one single court hearing this year, I am keeping the 2nd Circuit of US Appeals informed about everything as I see them according to what I've been told all year. My mother Janet McCaul recently called your courthouse from [REDACTED] so she is watching. We have email evidence from Victoria Bahl of the Rochester Federal Public Defenders Office about April 1st court hearing which scheduled an April 28th court hearing which never happened, as well as a May 5th court hearing which is apparently still on the schedule. The nature of what May 5th court hearing is supposed to be about has been discussed very openly ever since February 23rd, as Sean Eldridge clearly agreed to since my mother was told accordingly from Victoria Bahl.

Hopefully Sean Eldridge's typist Katie [REDACTED] isn't coming up with falsified paperwork for court hearings that never happened, and hopefully it's not actually Katie behind these hacked emails claiming to be from Victoria. We need to know who is who behind electronic devices. Sometimes we can't tell if it's Katie hacking our devices.

Thank you for reading, I'll be keeping Judge Vilardo of Buffalo informed since Katie is a defendant in his courtroom.
